MOYOCO ANNO

Author of the Original Manga

Is one of Japan's most acclaimed manga artists, known for her psychologically incisive portrayals of women and the desires, work, and identities that shape their lives. Born in Tokyo in 1971, she rose to prominence with Happy Mania and went on to create a wide-ranging body of work including Hataraki Man, Sakuran, and Sugar Sugar Rune, winner of the Kodansha Manga Award. Across genres, her work explores the complexities of beauty, ambition, and female selfhood, and has been widely adapted for film, television, and animation. Memoirs of Amorous Gentlemen, on which this musical is based, received the Excellence Award in the Manga Division at the 23rd Japan Media Arts Festival and is the first manga ever developed into an English-language American musical.

KENNY KUROKAWA

PRODUCER

Has the distinct honor of partnering with RAYMAN to bring his vision to life, building a bridge between Broadway and Japanese IP for the first time in history. Throughout his more than thirty-year career, Kenny has devoted himself to connecting Japan's untapped potential with leading figures around the world, engaging and inspiring consumers on a global scale. He has served as a lobbyist advocating for the global expansion of J-Beauty and as Managing Director of a government investment fund dedicated to promoting Japanese cuisine worldwide. He has also served as a representative of a government-backed film development firm focused on Japanese IP. Kenny would like to express his sincere respect and gratitude to the extraordinary artists whose passion, dedication, and talent—fueled by the inspiration of Japanese manga—have come together to create the ultimate theatrical experience.

Creative

RAYMAN

PRODUCER

Memoirs of Amorous Gentlemen marks RAYMAN's New York producing debut. A great lover of the arts and the artists who bring them to life, RAYMAN has dedicated substantial resources, time, and energy to championing bold storytelling, dynamic creative visions, and commercial platforms that engage the next generation of audiences. RAYMAN is currently overseeing the development of a creative sanctuary in Japan designed to give artists the time, space, and resources to imagine, experiment, realize their artistic potential, and ultimately allow their brightest ideas to shine. He extends his deepest respect and gratitude to every individual who has played a part in bringing Memoirs of Amorous Gentlemen to the stage.

ANTONIO MARION

Is a New York-based theatre administrator originally from Japan. She is thrilled to bring Memoirs of Amorous Gentlemen to the Off-Broadway stage, having worked on the project for over six years. Her credits include Assistant Company Manager for Pretty Guardian Sailor Moon: The Super Live (North American Tour); Sub Assistant Stage Manager for the Jesus Christ Superstar 50th Anniversary Tour; and Production Assistant for the First National Tour of Ain't Too Proud. She also assists a Music Coordinator on various Broadway and Off-Broadway productions. M.A. Performing Arts Administration, NYU.

MIKA FURUYA

ASSOCIATE PRODUCER

Is a New York-based illustrator, creative director, and event producer. She has been involved with Memoirs of Amorous Gentlemen since its early development, helping establish the project in New York. For over two decades, Mika has worked across art, design, hospitality, and cultural projects, collaborating with Michelin-starred restaurants, luxury hospitality brands, and Japanese cultural organizations. mikafuruya.com

RYOHEI OTANI

ASSOCIATE PRODUCER

Is an independent producer based in Japan, working across Broadway, the West End and Japanese commercial theatre — bringing Japanese productions to international audiences and international work to Japanese stages. He originated and developed the Japanese productions of Factory Girls and October Sky while at Amuse Inc. Off-Broadway: Without You (Co-Producer). Alongside his investment partners, he has backed numerous productions in New York and London.
